Dear Requester:

This is the final response to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request, originally received by the United States Secret Service (Secret Service) on July 30, 2014, for information pertaining to all records of twitter messages which the USSS considers to be a threat against the President of the United States created after May 5, 2011.

Enclosed are documents responsive to your request. In an effort to provide you with the greatest degree of access authorized by law, we have considered this material under the FOIA statute, Title 5 U.S.C. § 552. Pursuant to this Act, exemptions have been applied where deemed appropriate. The exemptions cited are marked below.

In addition, approximately 155 page(s) were released, and approximately 165 page(s) were withheld in their entirety. An enclosure to this letter explains the exemptions in more detail.

☒ If this box is checked, deletions were made pursuant to the exemptions indicated below.

☒ FOIA and Privacy Act Exemption List

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT
SUBSECTIONS OF TITLE 5, UNITED STATES CODE, SECTION 552

Provisions of the Freedom of Information Act do not apply to matter that are:

- (b) (1) (A) specifically authorized under criteria established by an Executive Order to be kept secret in the interest of national defense or foreign policy and (B) are in fact properly classified pursuant to such Executive order;
- (b) (2) related solely to the internal personnel rules and practices any agency;
- (b) (3) specifically exempted from disclosure by statute (other than section 552b of this title), if that statute: (A)(i) requires that the matters be withheld from the public in such a manner as to leave no discretion on the issue, or (ii) establishes particular criteria for withholding or refers to particular types of matters to be withheld; and (B) is established after the date of enactment of the OPEN FOIA Act of 2009;
- (b) (4) trade secrets and commercial or financial information obtained from a person and privileged or confidential;
- (b) (5) inter-agency or intra-agency memorandums or letters which would not be available by law to a party other than an agency in litigation with the agency; provided that the deliberative process privilege shall not apply to records created 25 years or more before the date on which the records were requested;
- (b) (6) personnel and medical files and similar files the disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy;
- (b) (7) records or information compiled for law enforcement purposes, but only to the extent that the information: (A) could reasonable be expected to interfere with enforcement proceedings; (B) would deprive a person of a right to a fair trial or an impartial adjudication; (C) could reasonably be expected to constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy; (D) could reasonable be expected to disclose the identity of a confidential source, including a State, local, or foreign agency or authority or any private institution which furnished information on a confidential basis, and, in the case of a record or information compiled by a criminal law enforcement authority in the course of a criminal investigation, or by an agency conducting a lawful national security intelligence investigation, information furnished by a confidential source; (E) would disclose techniques and procedures for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions, or would disclose guidelines for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions if such disclosure could reasonably be expected to risk circumvention of the law; (F) could reasonably be expected to endanger the life or physical safety of any individual;
- (b) (8) contained in or related to examination, operating, or condition reports prepared by, on behalf of, or for the use of an agency responsible for regulation or supervision of financial institutions;
- (b) (9) geological and geophysical information and data, including maps, concerning wells.

PRIVACY ACT
SUBSECTIONS OF TITLE 5, UNITED STATES CODE, SECTION 552a

The provisions of the Privacy Act do not apply to:

- (d) (5) material compiled in reasonable anticipation of civil action or proceeding;
- (j) (2) material reporting investigative efforts pertaining to enforcement of criminal law including efforts to prevent, control, or reduce crime or apprehend criminals;
- (k)(1) material is currently and properly classified pursuant to an Executive Order in the interest of national defense or foreign policy;
- (k) (2) material compiled during investigations for law enforcement purposes;
- (k) (3) material maintained in connection with providing protective services to the President of the United States or other individuals pursuant to section 3056 of Title 18;
- (k) (5) investigatory material compiled solely for the purpose of determining suitability, eligibility, or qualifications for Federal civilian employment, military service, Federal contracts, or for access to classified information, but only to the extent that the disclosure of such material would reveal the identity of the person who furnished information to the Government under an express promise that the identity of the source would be held in confidence, or prior to the September 27, 1975, under an implied promise that the identity of the source would be held in confidence;
- (k) (6) testing or examination material used solely to determine individual qualifications for appointment or promotion in the Federal service the disclosure of which would compromise the objectivity or fairness of the testing or examination process;

(b)(6);(b)(7)(C) first came to USSS attention on 12/17/09 after he posted numerous tweets to Twitter.com using the screen name (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) posted to the White House Twitter account, ?I have planted bombs in various federal buildings. Device construction, yield, location: http://tinyurl.com/yl4as7b.? A review of (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) blog revealed further inappropriate mentions of the White House and President Barack Obama (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) was interviewed by this Service and advised he posted the threats to Twitter because he wanted to bring attention to his belief that the 09/11/01 terrorist attacks (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) were part of a government conspiracy headed by the Department of Defense to enact harmful US legislation, such as the Patriot Act. He advised he did not take the threats in his tweet seriously and had no intentions of harming any USSS protectees. (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) returned to USSS attention on 08/21/10 when he tweeted various threats against POTUS to the attention of the White House Twitter account. (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) using the screen name, (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) tweeted, ?I am dying inside. And I am plainly stating to you that I am going to kill the president.? Other topics (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) posted to Twitter that date included detonating bombs that were placed inside the White House, nuclear weapons, and other threats against POTUS. A review of (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) personal website, ckpi.typepad.com, revealed several nonsensical, rambling, and anti-government posts authored by (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) He claimed he did not feel he threatened POTUS and explained his tweets and posts were all a part of his "comedy show." He advised Former President George W. Bush had labeled him a terrorist when he was in office, and therefore prevented (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) from receiving ?ticket revenues? from his online comedy show. He stated he knew his tweets were wrong, but wanted a response from the government regarding the money he felt was owed to him (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)

(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)

(b)(6);(b)(7)(C) He described himself as ?the nicest guy in the world,? and reiterated that his statements online were not threats (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)

(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)

"@BarackObama: Assassination is key, the action is inevitable, vigilance will strike with no remorse" "@BarackObama: and don't worry, I got the perfect tree picked out and my lynching mob is ready!" "@BarackObama: Don't forget about the family because I won't...." "@BarackObama: You're going to get shot tomorrow around noonish, right after I finish my breakfast." (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)

(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)

On 08/16/11 (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) posted threats and sexually explicit remarks concerning President Barack Obama and First Lady Michelle Obama on Twitter (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) comments included, "Maybe if President Obama would stop campaigning for my dick?and his wife accepts his preilICKtions,? ?I?m coming to kick you out of the WHITE house fag,? and ?I want to kill Presidente Obama. Is that really a 1st Amendment issue?" (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) continued to post threats on Twitter, and on 09/13/11, his comments included, "Presidente Obama when I am finished with my terrorism spree your brains will be scattered around the streets of Washingto,? ?But feel free to fundraise in Texas as if the Secret Service can stop me from splattering your brains all over Austin,? and ?Let me make this clear. I intend to shoot President Obama in the head with a double tap and watch his brains, the yellows and the reds stream.?" In 10/11 (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) wrote, "Obama, your presidency ends today,? and ?There Obama, you have a legitimate confession from a God that he defied you and did aterrosist act so come at me brah. Or I will kill you.?" (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)

(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)

(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)

(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)

also posted on Twitter, "Secret service where u at! I threatened ur precious tyrant! Ull b sorry u didn't come looking for me in a couple of hours ;).? He also responded to a text message about the possibility of the Secret Service interviewing him for his comments with, "I hope :) I wanna kill at least two of them when they get here."
